“Three-destination skiing”: exclusive ski safari in Graubünden

Arosa, 30 October 2018 – With the “Three-destination skiing” special, the Tschuggen Hotel Group is launching an exciting offer for winter sports enthusiasts. On the three-day ski safari from Arosa to St. Moritz via Lenzerheide, guests can discover diverse ski resorts offering kilometres of slopes, and overnight in three exclusive hotels in the Graubünden mountains.

Those wanting to explore over 340 kilometres of snow-sure slopes and three exceptional hotels in Graubünden within a short space of time will find the perfect new offer at the Tschuggen Hotel Group. “Three-destination skiing” includes two days of skiing in the winter sports resort Arosa Lenzerheide, one day of skiing in St. Moritz, as well as a comfortable night’s stay in the Valsana Hotel & Appartements, the Tschuggen Grand Hotel and the Carlton Hotel. Also included are arrival and departure by train, ski rental, transfers between the destinations and luggage transport. “The special is in line with our philosophy to offer guests a pleasurable and unique experience”, says Leo Maissen, the company’s Chief Development Officer.

The ski safari starts in Arosa, at 1800 a s l, where guests are accommodated in the Valsana Hotel & Appartements at the entrance to the village. Recently reopened in 2017, the four-star hotel boasts a design inspired by the surrounding nature, as well as a sustainable energy concept. After a relaxing night in the hotel, the “Tschuggen Express” private mountain railway brings guests right into the heart of the ski resort connecting the two holiday destinations Arosa and Lenzerheide. Guests’ luggage is then transported to the Tschuggen Grand Hotel, where they will spend the second night. This hotel is situated right by the slope and is easily reached on skis. Those looking to relax can make use of the five-star hotel’s 5,000 sqm spa, which was designed by star architect Mario Botta. The following day, guests have once again the opportunity to enjoy the 225 kilometres of slopes and 42 installations connecting the two ski resort. This time, the descent leads right into the heart of the mountain village Lenzerheide, where guests are collected by chauffeur in the late afternoon for the one-hour drive to the chic Carlton Hotel St. Moritz. In addition to fine suites offering unobstructed views of the lake, the luxury hotel also boasts award-winning haute cuisine, an exclusive spa and a large sun terrace. Guests have the option of spending a third and final unforgettable day of skiing on Corviglia or Corvatsch, exploring a total of 270 kilometres of slopes.
