Stefan Noll, General Manager of Tschuggen Grand Hotel in Arosa

Since September 2017, Stefan Noll has been the General Manager of the Tschuggen Grand Hotel where he has been bringing fresh impulses to the hotel with events such as the Tour de Tschuggen, a racing bike tour from Chur to Ascona via Arosa.

“With the Tschuggen I am managing one of Switzerland's best wellness hotels, and I am delighted to be able to contribute to the further development of the establishment”, explains Stefan Noll.

The 42-year-old from Krefeld started his career as a hotelier by training to be a hotel clerk at the Excelsior Hotel Ernst in Cologne. Next, he gained experience in hotels in Europe and Asia. He worked at the Mandarin Oriental in London, The Leela Goa in India, and The Legian on Bali, to name but a few.

In addition to his professional activity, Stefan Noll has always pursued further professional training. His qualifications include the Certificate for Butler Training by The Guild of Professional English Butlers. He also completed the General Manager programme at Cornell University in the USA.

Stefan Noll first came to Switzerland in 2013 when he took on the position of Hotel Manager at The Chedi Andermatt for one year. This was followed by three years as Executive Assistant Manager at Badrutt's Palace in St. Moritz, before he moved to the Tschuggen Hotel Group in Arosa.
