Eden Roc Restaurant supports local talent with the appointment of their new Chef: Caterina Vosti

With the young Caterina Vosti, a true Ticinese is returning to her homeland. From 1 August 2021, the ambitious 30-year-old has been in charge of Eden Roc restaurant at the 5-star superior hotel of the same name on the shores of Lake Maggiore.

Ascona, (1 September 2021). After 23 successful years, chef Cyrille Kamerzin said goodbye to the 5-star superior hotel Eden Roc, passing over the reins to young Ticinese chef, Caterina Vosti to lead the 14-member kitchen team.

Stations in Switzerland and abroad prepared the young chef perfectly for her new task. She was able to gain various impressions thanks to Andreas Caminada's "Uccelin" foundation, among other things. Here, young, hand-picked talents are specifically promoted and given the opportunity to look into the kitchens of highly decorated chefs. Some of Chef Vosti's mentors have included Andreas Caminada at Schloss Schauenstein, Daniel Humm at Eleven Madison Park in New York, Holzen Fleisch Metzgerei in Ennetbürgen and also, at Anita Lo's Asian restaurant in New York. All these elements now flow into the regularly changing menu at the Eden Roc restaurant. With the Moving Mountains Menu, there is also a purely plant-based option on the menu every day.

At Eden Roc restaurant, Caterina and her team conjure up pleasantly light and aromatic cuisine, creating visually exciting colourful cuisine which compliments the breathtaking view of Lake Maggiore. "My cuisine should simply make people happy," says Vosti. When the weather is good, dinner is served on the spacious terrace.

"We are delighted to support young and local talent from the region. Chef Vosti brings a fresh and dynamic perspective to Eden Roc restaurant," says Simon Spiller, director of the hotel, which belongs to the Tschuggen Hotel Group. Caterina brings management experience from the Rocco Forte Hotel Villa Kennedy in Frankfurt and The Capra in Saas-Fee.

At the Swiss Deluxe Hotel Eden Roc, guests will find plenty of variety in the four culinary worlds. The Resort Dine Around offers guests a wide range of options.
